THE WHITE EMERSON LEGACY

White-Emerson Mortuary began in 1894 after the White family traveled from Iowa to the small Quaker community of Whittier, California. Addison White, our founder, started "E.H. White Furniture and Undertaking", named after his wife, Eliza H. White.

Shortly after the turn of the century, Addison's son, David H., took the helm. David built a new building and moved the firm in 1918 from its original location on south Greenleaf to its current location on Philadelphia Street. In 1923 he formed a successful partnership with Charlie E. Emerson, and they worked together for nearly two decades until David's death in 1942.

Rowland D. White, son of David H., had worked for the firm since his youth. Upon the death of his father, Rowland took over his father's ownership of the company as a partner to Mr. Emerson. Charlie Emerson passed away in 1961 and Rowland became sole owner before his untimely death only two months later.

The family tradition carried on as David E. White, Rowland's eldest son, took the reins at only 25 years of age. Five years later, in 1966, the White family purchased Coleman Mortuary in La Habra.

Tragedy struck in 1987 with the Whittier Narrows Earthquake. The beautiful building built by Second-Generation owner, David H. White, was destroyed. At the time of the earthquake, the son of then-current owner David E. White, Philip R. White, stepped up to oversee construction of our present day facility. Philip continued to manage the firm for several years before purchasing it from his father in 1997.

At present, Philip R. White, the fifth generation of the White family, continues to provide the same care that has been a comfort to thousands of families for over a century.

DISCLOSURES & DISCLAIMERS

On the following pages you will find a detailed description of the services and merchandise that are offered by White-Emerson Mortuary, with the corresponding prices. The Federal Trade Commission requires that all funeral establishments use certain specific language in its disclosures. If the wording of these disclosures or your Agreement does not seem to apply to your situation or to our establishment, we will be happy to answer any questions you may have. Prior to the drafting of any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent's survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any agreement that has been signed and paid for, in full or in part, by or on behalf of the deceased, and that is in the possession of the funeral establishment. The goods and services shown on this list are those we can provide to our clients. You may choose only those items you desire. However, any funeral selection you make will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean that you must purchase any items not specifically requested, we will explain the reason for this in writing. This will be shown on the Statement of Funeral Goods and Services Selected.

- We reserve the right to refuse service to any family whom we feel we cannot adequately serve.
- We are not responsible for delays in services or disposition because the attending physician does not properly sign the death certificate.
- This is a non-smoking facility. Smoking permitted only in outside areas.
- No food or beverages are permitted in the building except in authorized areas.
- White-Emerson Mortuary makes no representations or warranties about the protective value of certain caskets or outer burial containers other than those made by the manufacturer. The only warranties, expressed or implied, granted in connection with goods sold with this funeral service are the written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers thereof. No other warranties and, specifically, no warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, are extended by the seller.

CHOICES RELATED TO PAYMENT

We at White Emerson Mortuary are honored to help you at this difficult time. Please know we are committed to providing the highest level of service to you and your family, regardless of the type of services you selected. If you need clarification regarding any of the services you have selected or regarding the following payment options, don't hesitate to ask. Our goal is for you to feel comfortable and clear as to the services you have chosen, and the financial obligation that comes with these services. You will be presented with a complete statement detailing the goods and services you have selected. We respectfully ask that payment be made one business day prior to the service or cremation, whichever comes first. You may choose to settle your account as follows:
